U.S. Probation Officer Action:

Mr. Torres, Jr. was verbally reprimanded in regards to his continued use of methamphetamine. The circumstances around his use were discussed and he struggled to determine other decisions he could have made in the moment. This demonstrates a continued need to engage in substance abuse treatment, which Mr. Torres is currently required to attend three times a week.

Mr. Torres continues to report for random urinalysis pursuant to the colorline. He also reports to the probation office every Tuesday, as added accountability. Mr. Torres was reminded of his obligation to comply with his supervised release conditions. His noncompliance is linked to his addiction and he is engaged in substance abuse treatment at this time. He is aware that any further positive urine samples or noncompliance with treatment, would require him to appear before the Court.

Based on the above information, this officer recommends no action be taken at this time.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
